

May

Women's Organic Softstyle Healthcare Hoddie

Inspired by May-Britt Moser, a pioneer in neuroscience, the May Hoodie represents women who challenge boundaries and seek innovative solutions in their daily lives. Designed for those who combine passion, professionalism, and sustainability, this garment offers maximum comfort and performance without compromising the care of the planet.

Just like May-Britt Moser, those who wear the May Hoodie aim to make a difference in their environment. Comfort, innovation, and sustainability in one garment.
